TERMS APPLICABLE TO DEVELOPMENT PERMIT

CONDITIONS OF DECISION	The decision on this application applies only to the use and development described in the decision. A separate application is required for the extension or amendment of a development permit, or any other development (e.g. signs) not included in this application.
APPEAL	The Municipal Government Act provides that any person affected by the issue of a development permit may appeal to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board by serving written notice to the secretary of the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board within 14 days of the date this permit was issued.
PERMIT EXPIRY	A development permit expires 12 months from the date of its issue, if the development or use authorized by the permit has not been commenced or carried out with reasonable diligence within 12 months from the date of its issue, in accordance with administrative procedures of the Land Use Bylaw.
PERMIT NOT TRANSFERABLE	A development permit is valid only for the location for which it is issued, but a development permit may be transferred to another person in certain instances (subject to and in accordance with administrative procedures of the Land Use Bylaw) provided that the designated officer issues a written consent which authorizes the transfer.
PERMIT AUTHORITY	A development permit indicates that only the development to which it relates is authorized in accordance with the provisions of the Land Use Bylaw and in no way relieves or excuses the applicant from complying with the Land Use Bylaw or any other bylaw of the municipality or any applicable provincial or federal legislation.
OTHER PERMITS AND LICENCES	A development permit is not a building permit, plumbing permit, electrical permit, a permit to install underground or above-ground fuel tanks, a permit issued by a Public Health Inspector, or a business license. These and other separate permits or licenses may be required by municipal, provincial or federal authorities.
